

Privacy Statement

The Pilbara Development Commission records your visit and logs the following information for statistical purposes:

- the user's server address,
- the user's top level domain name (eg. .com, .gov, .au, .uk etc.),
- the date and time of the visit to the site,
- the pages accessed and documents downloaded,
- the previous site visited, and
- the type of browser used.

No attempt will be made to identify users or their browsing activities except, in the unlikely event of an investigation, where a law enforcement agency may exercise a warrant to inspect the service provider's logs.

Your details

For entrance to the competition the Pilbara Development Commission asks that participants provide their names, contact details and describe their contact with the Pilbara. The information you provide will be used for determining and contacting the competition winner.

Entrants can choose to be kept informed automatically by the Commission of upcoming promotions in which instance their contact information will become part of a Commission contact list and used exclusively by the organisation while it maintains the sites.

Management of the website of Facebook pages associated with the 'My Pilbara Adventure' promotion in the future may be assumed by another organization selected by the Commission to continue the work undertaken. Followers and subscribers should be advised that in that instance their information will remain with the web and Facebook sites.

Statistical data may be produced by the Pilbara Development Commission based on qualitative details provided however this will not be done in any way to identify individuals.

This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administrated by, or associated with, Facebook and your information is available only to the Pilbara Development Commission.